

Political Spending

Federal law and many state laws prohibit corporate contributions to political parties or candidates. To ensure compliance with these laws, no fund, services, or assets of any kind may be either contributed or loaned, directly or indirectly, to any political party or to the campaign of any person for political office, or expended in support of or in opposition to such party or person. This prohibition is not intended to discourage employees from engaging in political activities on their own time and at their own expense.
